

I don't know if you remember very well since I know ya'll are so busy, but you went to Greenwood, South Carolina and played at Lander University. I was one of the students who attended the workshop ya'll had since I was in the show with ya'll.

I must say, for me to be playing with someone so professional as ya'll, it made my heart beat so fast because I was afraid of how bad ya'll might hear me squeak from me being so nervous!!!

When I heard ya'll play though, and clapped, it literally almost brought me to tears because each song painted such a vivid picture in my mind. Ya'll played beautifully.

Every single one of ya'll played so great, but I have to give it to my boy Nat! He's my hero when it comes to the tuba. I play the flute and have tried beat-boxing, but I think Nat blows everyone away. Not to mention you play Guitar Hero! Kudos to you!!

Michael, you're an outstanding trombone player and a wonderful teacher. You taught me how to be selfconfident and you gave us nonstop compliments. Thanks a million!

DJ, you play..so beautifully and so meaningfully. Not many people can be so diverse on the different types of trumpets and what not, but you can play so well on all of them.

Jeff, you have a rockin' rhythm!! Not to mention you know how to get down on a xylophone!!! I was amazed how fast, and cool you made the effects and everything went. You're the best!

Brian, you're as well a great trumpet player! You played your solos almost so perfectly, I could've thought you were the king of trumpet or something. You rock at it!!

And Chris, you're an AMAZING horn player. Normally, you can never hear a french horn in our class, and we have lots of them, but you doubled the sound of all our horns, and played so, so, so great!! You're astounding at it and I hope you never give up on it.

To everyone though, you really are an inspiration to me. You make me want to do my best in music and ya'll taught me the true meaning of music playing. It comes from your heart. It's not the music on a sheet of paper, it comes from inside and it has made me a better flute player by far! Thanks a million! I wake up and go to sleep to ya'll everyday now. You're the best you guys!!!
